Business Services Team

As your Michigan Works! Business Services Team representative, I am eager to listen to your needs and deliver services and resources to make you strong and successful.

You benefit by:

Maintaining productivity at your establishment by using ours as a drop-off point for job applications, interviewing and testing locations

Maximizing exposure for your employee recruitment with free job advertisements

Gaining free access to the largest, most comprehensive web-based resume pool in the state

Capturing the most qualified candidates

Saving time by cutting through the clutter of unqualified applicants and viewing only those who truly meet your specifications

Expending less effort and expense and assuming less uncertainty to develop a quality workforce
